International Tutoring Center: Reading Workshops

These workshops offer practice and instruction for students to improve their critical reading skills for university level success. Students can select one or more of these workshops.

FALL 2016

Workshop 1: Preparing to Read College Textbooks/Concentration
- Date: Monday, October 3
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Identify and develop reading habits to improve concentration

Workshop 2: Preparing to Read College Textbooks/New Vocabulary
- Date: Monday, October 17
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Use reading tools and techniques to understand new vocabulary

Workshop 3: Preparing to Read College Textbooks/Memory
- Date: Monday, October 24
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Develop skills to remember new vocabulary

Workshop 4: Key Strategies for Reading Comprehension
- Date: Monday, October 31
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Identify and evaluate key topics and ideas

Workshop 5: Advanced Strategies for Critical Reading
- Date: Monday, November 7
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Identify and distinguish main and minor supporting details

Workshop 6: More Advanced Strategies for Critical Reading
- Date: Monday, November 14
- Times: 11:30-1:00pm
- Location: Curry Student Center, Room 340

Description: Identify and evaluate inference conclusions

---

Important Points:
- Six free non-credit sessions
- Space is limited, sign up early
- Instructor E-mail: J.Ryan@northeastern.edu
- Register online at https://neu.mywconline.net/