*NEW: Walk In Hours with Global Student Success

Every Thursday 2010
International Village

This is an opportunity to talk about your goals for your Northeastern experience and what you plan to use it for after graduation. Please make an appointment by e-mailing Lena Alazawi at L.alazawi@neu.edu and suggest times on a Thursday when you are available to meet. These meetings will be for half an hour, and will be arranged according to a first come first served basis.

Culture Café: Rent & Roommates + Health & Insurance

Friday, July 2\textsuperscript{nd} 2010 2:00pm - 4:00pm
Egan Research Center - Room 440

These two information sessions will be presented together. Rent & Roommates will discuss finding housing and living with others, and the Health & Insurance session will cover basic information about the American health insurance system, as well as how to best use the University Health and Counseling Services center.

Our guest speakers will include current students who will share their experiences and offer recommendations based on personal knowledge. Your participation is welcome and encouraged!

Light refreshments will be served.

Professional Development: Volunteering Workshop

Wednesday, July 14\textsuperscript{nd} 2010 1:30pm-2:30pm
Egan Research Center - Room 440

What does it mean to be a volunteer? How do you find volunteer positions? Did you know that volunteering can help your career intentions?

This information session and workshop will help you learn many of the benefits that volunteering can offer you. We will discuss where you can look for volunteer positions around Boston and near Northeastern, and we will also talk about the expectations and responsibilities you may have.

Volunteering is an excellent opportunity to practice your English, learn more about American culture, and add some experience to your resume.

All College of Professional Studies students are welcome
Please confirm attendance with Lena at: L.Alazawi@neu.edu
